Previous Citizen of the Year Award Recipients

2014: Ian Farthing, Artistic Director of St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival

As principal builder of the St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival, Ian Farthing was a leading proponent of the arts in Prescott for a decade. The Vancouver-born U.K.-trained actor and director served as the Artistic Director of the festival during a period of great growth from 2006 through 2014. Ian's tenure included many record-breaking seasons and was capped with securing the only Canadian performance of London's Shakespeare's Globe to Globe world tour of Hamlet in 2014. Ian also appeared in Canadian productions of the Sound of Music, Cabaret and The Mousetrap. He additionally played a prominent regional role in arts and tourism serving on the Great Waterway Tourism Advisory Committee and the Arts Council of the 1000 Islands.

2015: Carr/Todd Families, Founders and Organizers of Prescott and District Soccer Association

Laurence Carr, Lesley and Randy Todd, and Rob Carr have spent decades dedicated to the Prescott and District Soccer Association. Siblings Laurence, Lesley, and Rob carry on the legacy on the legacy of their father, Tom Carr. Since 1967, generations of Prescott's youth have gone through the leagues nurtured by our own Mr. Soccer (with the support of his wife Peggy) and carried on with the Carr and Todd families to the present day. In 2014, this was again a year-round occupation for the families. They organized all aspects of the soccer program, ensured affordability, promoted the development of children, and supported referees, coaches, and parents. Without the dedication of the Carrs and the Todds, youth soccer would not exist in Prescott.

2016: Alleyn Abel, Volunteer St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival, Friends of the Prescott Public Library, Ducks Unlimited

Dedication to Prescott has long been a priority of Alleyn Abel. 'Reliable,' 'tireless,' and 'generous' are just a few of the words used to describe his eight years of volunteer work running the Front of House at the St. Lawrence Shakespeare Festival. In 2015 alone, he spent over 500 hours on show duties, filling in at the office and helping with offseason performances. Alleyn has also been an active member of the Friends of the Prescott Public Library, organizing events and coordinating book sales while serving as the group's vice-chair and treasurer. He has been a volunteer with the Prescott chapter of Ducks Unlimited for seven years. Alleyn's example of community service is an inspiration to all of Prescott.
